

FISCAL NOTE

SB 999 - HB 1090

February 12, 2005

SUMMARY OF BILL: Limits the amount a person can contribute to a state political party or to a caucus of such political party established by members of either house of the General Assembly to $25,000 per election.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

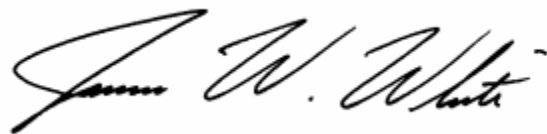

Increase State Revenues – Not Significant

Assumption:

- To the extent the Registry of Election Finance imposes and collects civil penalties, state revenues could increase. Such increase in revenues would depend upon the number of penalties and the amount of such penalties imposed and is estimated to be not significant.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "James W. White". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "James" written in a smaller, more compact script than the last name "White".

James W. White, Executive Director